Arriving by train/tram

The University of Bremen is directly connected with the central train station by tram. To get to the meeting venue, take tram line 6 heading towards “Universität” and get off at “Universität Zentralbereich”. Tickets can be purchased on the train. Then walk through the glass hall across the inner courtyard into the GW2 building. Follow the staircase ahead of you to the 3rd floor, where signs will lead you to the meeting room.
Arriving by plane

The University of Bremen is directly connected with Bremen airport. Take tram line 6 heading in the direction of “Universität” and get off at “Universität Zentralbereich”. Then walk through the glass hall across the inner courtyard into the GW2 building. Follow the staircase ahead of you to the 3rd floor, where signs will lead you to the meeting room.

ARRIVING BY CAR

If you are coming from the A1 motorway (Autobahn A1), take the A27 North at the Bremen interchange (Bremer Kreuz). Leave the A27 at exit “Universität / Horn-Lehe” and follow the signs for “Zentrum / Universität”. At the third set of traffic lights, turn right into “Universitätsallee”, and at the next crossing, turn right again into Enrique-Schmidt-Straße.

The underground car park of the GW2 building is the best place to park your car. You will find the entrance to the underground car park on the left-hand side at the end of Enrique-Schmidt-Straße, behind a small surface level car park.

Inside the underground car park follow the directions to “Eingang GW2 / Turm C”. Take the lift up to the third floor (Ebene 3).
